International Specialised Skills Institute

Since 1989, ISS Institute, an independent, national organisation, has identified skill deficiencies, then filled them through its Overseas Skill Acquisition Plan (Fellowship Program), education activities and consultancy services. This provides opportunities for Australians to gain best-in-the-world skills, knowledge and insights.

About the Forum

Marc Krusin lives and works in Milan, and studied design in the UK.

This session has been designed for you to not only hear Marc's story and see his work, but importantly, seeks to provide understanding, insights and contacts in working in the world of fabulous Italian Industrial Design and related Furniture Design and Manufacturing Industries ... so come prepared with questions.

Register now as limited places are available. We are purposefully keeping the group attending the forum small, so there is opportunity for discussion/questions/answers.

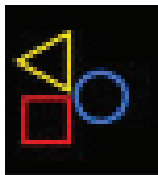

Industrial and Furniture Design Manufacturing. Trends. Markets...

Marc Krusin graduated from Leeds Metropolitan University with a BA (Hons) degree in furniture design. He began his career in Milan collaborating as a designer with various studios. These include Piero Lissoni's office, where he is presently Design Manager and runs projects for clients of international reputation such as Alessi, Kartell, Flos and Wella.

In 1998 he co-founded the Milan based group Codice 31 with five other designers. The group's first appearance was at the 1998 Milan furniture fair's "Salone Satellite" and it has since undergone continual expansion and gained an increasing importance in the design world, collaborating with some of the sector's most prestigious companies.

Marc is currently working with companies such as Saporiti, Bosa ceramiche, Fontana Arte, Pallucco, Caop d'Opera and Viccarbe.
